

“DID WE TELL YOU WE LOVE YOU TODAY?”

To the customers of DeCarlo's Banquet and Convention Center,

Due to the current health situation gripping the nation as well as State guidelines, our banquet center is closed. Our staff have contacted the most directly effected customers to postpone and reschedule events for a later date. We realize this is a major inconvenience and we will work with you to reschedule.

We can be reached by phone (586-759-6500) as our office is not open for face to face interaction for changes or new bookings. We remain hopeful that this situation is short term and we thank you for your understanding through this unprecedented situation.

Stay Safe,

Gary and Patti DeCarlo
